

Dr. Tom's Tips for Water Safety Month

Prioritize the bottom...

When we're scanning, we often spend too much time scanning the surface alone. People on the bottom of the pool don't look like people.

Whenever you see a blemish on the pool bottom - whether you think it's a paint chip, a towel, or a shadow, check it out and make sure it's not a person.

Seconds can save lives.